The 118th Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English

About CAPE

The Center for Asia-Pacific Exchange, a publicly supported, non-profit educational institution, was established in Honolulu, Hawaii in November 1980. CAPE is accredited by the Accrediting Council for Continuing Education and Training (ACET), a national accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education.

Since its inception the Center has hosted in its various programs over 10,000 participants from countries located in the Asia-Pacific area including Burma, Canada, China, Fiji, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Micronesia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand, and the United States.

The Advisory Council members are Daniel K. Akaka, former U.S. Senator, Hawaii; John Faris, Emeritus Chair, University of Hawaii Board of Regents, and former Chairman, Hawaii State Board of Agriculture; Young Tae Kim, Chairman, Daesung Group; Matthew M. Matsunaga, Attorney, Schlack Ito, and former Senator, State of Hawaii; and Ruth M. Ono, Emeritus Regent, University of Hawaii and Emeritus Vice President, The Queen’s Health Systems.

The members of the Board of Directors are John Chang, former Deputy Attorney General, State of Hawaii; James T. Shon, former Executive Director, Charter School, Administrative Office, State of Hawaii; Edward J. Shultz, former Dean, School of Hawaiian, Asian & Pacific Studies, University of Hawaii; Jin Ho You, President, CAPE; and Fred Yoo, Co-President, CAPE.

For additional information, write to:
The Center for Asia-Pacific Exchange
P.O. Box 23397 • Honolulu, Hawaii 96823-3397
Tel: (808) 942-8553 • Fax: (808) 941-9575
E-Mail: cape@cape.edu

Visit our website: http://www.cape.edu

Workshop Registration Form

The 118th Workshop for Asian-Pacific Teachers of English

Name (last) (first) Please circle: Dr. - Male / Female

Home Address

zip Tel:

Present Position & Business Address

zip Tel:

E-mail address

Send Correspondence to: Home Address Business Address

Hotel Reservation

Hotel Check-In Date Hotel Check-Out Date

Pagoda Hotel (per person per night): Room with kitchen: Double Occupancy ($72.50) Single Occupancy ($145.00)
Room without kitchen: Double Occupancy ($67.00) Single Occupancy ($134.00)

We will make individual arrangements other than the Pagoda Hotel

Please return this form and make checks payable to: The Center for Asia-Pacific Exchange, P.O. Box 23397, Honolulu, Hawaii 96823-3397, U.S.A.

I obtained workshop information from (optional): ________

For information and assistance, please do not hesitate to contact CAPE (Tel. (808) 942-8553; Fax (808) 941-9575; E-mail: cape@cape.edu)

Enhancing Asia-Pacific Harmony in the 21st Century

August 2 - 11, 2016
WORKSHOP COURSE DESCRIPTION

- Developing a Philosophy of Language Teaching by Sandra McKay

This seminar will explore various ways of presenting new vocabulary in both beginning and intermediate level English language classes. We will begin by discussing what it means to ‘teach a word.’ Then we will examine various ways of introducing and using vocabulary items including semantic mapping, lexical phrases, and vocabulary notebooks.

- Approaches to Teaching Writing by Sandra McKay

This workshop begins by introducing four major approaches to the teaching of composition. It then describes various strategies for promoting writing in the language classroom. The last part of the workshop presents various principles for responding to students’ essays.

- Developing Interactive Competence for EFL Learners by Hanch Th Nguyen

In this lecture, participants learn about how social interaction is organized and how interactive competence can be developed. Through theoretical concepts and concrete examples from research, the lecture discusses how teachers can help students develop interactive competence in an EFL context.

- Motivating Foreign Language Learners by Richard Schmidt

This workshop session reviews current findings and research regarding motivation and second language learning, with a special focus on what teachers can do to more strongly motivate their students.

- Attention & Awareness in Language Classrooms by Richard Schmidt

This workshop session will review what is known about conscious and unconscious processes in learning as they apply to second and foreign language learning, with particular focus on the roles of attention and awareness. Connections will be made between cognitive processes and instructional interventions such as task-based and content-based language teaching, input enhancement, recasts, and other techniques for making form-meaning connections salient to learners.

WORKSHOP FACULTY / SPEAKERS

Graham Crookes is Professor, Department of SLS at the University of Hawai‘i. He has published in major journals such as TESOL Quarterly, Applied Linguistics, and Modern Language Journal. His current research interests include teachers’ philosophies of teaching language and critical pedagogy. His most recent books are Yikes, Pimphobs and Beasts in TESOL: Making a statement (Cambridge University Press) and Critical ELT in Action (Praeger, 2006).

Richard R. Day is a professor in the Department of Second Language Studies at the University of Hawai‘i. His instructional and research interests are in second language teacher education, writing, literature, and materials development. He has presented at numerous conferences in Canada, Asia, and the United States. The author of numerous articles and books, his most recent publications include Ringing the Bell: Changing Ideals in TESOL Classroom (Oxford University Press), New Ways in Teaching Reading (TESOL) and Cerebrum (Oxford University Press).

Sandra McKay is Professor Emerita of English at San Francisco State University and an affiliate member of the Department of Second Language Studies at the University of Hawai‘i. Her primary interests are macro-sociolinguistics, second language educ-

Further Information

FURTHER INFORMATION

Dates

August 2 - 11, 2016

Place

Accommodations: Pagoda Hotel

Workshop: The Center for Asia-Pacific Exchange

Most sessions will be held at the University of Hawai‘i at Manoa.

Expenses (10 nights/11 days)

Tuition Fee: $400.00

Accommodations (double occupancy)

Room with kitchen: $72.50 x 10 nights .... $725.00

Room without kitchen: $67.00 x 10 nights .... $670.00

Total Expenses: $1,395.00 (with kitchen) $1,370.00 (without kitchen)

The tuition costs include a $100 non-refundable registration fee. The tuition fee will be fully refunded when cancelled prior to the start of the program.

Housing

A package rate of $72.50 for a room with kitchen or $67.00 for a room without kitchen per person on a double occupancy basis at Pagoda Hotel is available. Single occupancy is available for $69.50 for a room with kitchen or $54.50 for a room without kitchen per night. Double occupancy can be arranged as numbers of participants permit. When an odd number of participants are enrolled, alternate occupancy arrangements may be made. Double occupancy arrangements cannot be guaranteed in the event of cancellation or reservation changes by participants. It is strongly suggested that you select your roommate yourself, either prior to or upon arrival. Please be advised that you will pay a single occupancy rate should you not have a roommate.

Dining

Participants are free to purchase individual meals from the hotel restaurant, or try the numerous fine restaurants nearby, or cook their own dishes in their rooms.

Cancellation & Refund Policy:

If a participant enrolls CAPE of cancellation prior to the beginning of the formal program start date, tuition fees will be fully refunded within thirty (30) days of the dropped date. No refund will be given thereafter, and the $100 registration fee is non-refundable. Participants who arrive late in Hawai‘i to begin attending class will be charged full tuition for the entire term for which he/she was enrolled.

Registration

The completed registration form and the $400.00 tuition & registration fee should be sent to CAPE no later than June 20, 2016. Registration may also be completed electronic at www.capec.edu.

In both the M.A. and Ph.D. programs. He also served as Chair of the Department for six years, and for two years as the Director of the National Foreign Language Resource Center at the University for 16 years, and was the first Executive Director of the American Association for Applied Linguistics (AALL) in 2003-4. He is the author of many journal articles and books in the area of social and psychological factors in second and foreign language learning, as well as co-editor of the Longman Dictionary of Language Teaching and Applied Linguistics (4th Edition, 2010).

Medical Insurance

It is recommended that participants purchase medical insurance prior to coming.

WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

Tuesday, August 2

8:30 am - 9:30 am.............Orientation

9:30 am - 12:30 pm............Sessions

Monday, August 8

3:00 pm - 4:00 pm.............O rientation

F riday, August 12

8:30 am - 12:30 pm............Sessions

Saturday, August 6

9:30 am - 12:30 pm............Sessions

Sunday, August 7

9:00 am - 12:00 noon...........Sessions

Monday, August 8

8:30 am - 12:30 pm............Sessions

Tuesday, August 9

8:30 am - 12:30 pm............Sessions

Wednesday, August 10

8:30 am - 12:30 pm............Sessions

Thursday, August 11

8:30 am - 11:00 am............Sessions

11:30 am - 12:00 pm............Closing

*Optional nights can be added if you wish to stay in Honolulu for a few extra nights. CAPE will gladly reserve your room for additional nights, through the rate will change to single occupancy ($45.00/$51.00 per night) unless you have a roommate.

A detailed schedule of course topics will be available upon your arrival in Honolulu.

Afternoons are free for individual research and sight-seeing.

While attending the workshop, participants have access to University of Hawai‘i libraries.

A certificate will be awarded upon completion of the program.

CAPE can assist participants when they visit places of historical and cultural significance as well as popular tourist attractions, upon request. When necessary, CAPE arrange group tours to popular tourist spots such as the Polynesian Cultural Center and Sea Life Park.